KEY

Inasmuch as in the reproduction of the map of Great Nine Partners Patent, shown on the other side of this sheet, parts of the map will not be easily understood by persons unfamiliar with the locality, the following key is supplied.

The north boundary of the patent is marked: "From Hudson River to the head of the fish Kill 6 Miles 44 Ch. From the head of the fish Kill East 14 Miles to Connecticut Line to Stake with a heap of stones."

The east boundary is marked: "Along the Connecticut Line South 10 Deg West 13 Miles."

The south boundary is marked: "From the River to Wapins Creek 5 Miles & 7 Chain. From the White Oake tree the division line Between Mr. Henry Beekman and the Nine Partners is East 15 Miles to Connecticut Line."

The west boundary follows Hudson's River in part and, in part, "Fish Kill or Crom Elbough Kill."

The map shows:

1. The nine Water Lots, laid out along the river in 1699, one for each of the nine patentees.

2. The thirty-six Great Lots, laid out on the main portion of the patent in 1734, four for each of the patentees.

3. The tract along Crum Elbow Creek which in 1738 was sold to Aart Williams and Frans Van Dyck to obtain cash for the expense of surveying and partitioning the patent.

4. The tract along Crum Elbow Creek (south of the Van Dyck tract) marked Nelson's Land, and a parcel (east of the Van Dyck tract) which were also sold to defray expenses of the owners in laying out the land.

5. The Lesser Lots, laid out along Crum Elbow Creek in 1740.

6. Nine houses on the patent with names entered beside them as follows:

On Great Lot No. 7, Reynier Van Sant and Will'm Roard

On Great Lot No. 10, Jos. Creeger

On Great Lot No. 12, Abraham Freer

On Great Lot No. 29, Rich'd Sackett and Hen. Nise

On Great Lot No. 33, Jn Salberry

On Lesser Lot No. 15, Wid'w Allen and Maxfield.

7. Four houses with no names, in Connecticut, just east of the New York boundary line; and two houses on the Beekman Patent, just south of the line of Great Nine Partners, marked Jacob Van camp and Derick Ducher.

8. A dotted line, across the patent from northwest to southeast, that indicates a road.

9. The location of "Poccapse," south of the patent, with ten houses, a church, a road and, at the river, the words: "Leweyes Mill Creek," indicating the mouth of the Fallkill.

Each of the thirty-six Great Lots is marked: "good," "bad," or "indifferent." The "good" lots are those which are believed to be of limestone formation and possessed of specially fertile soil.

The lots were assigned to the nine patentees as follows:

Henry Ten Eyck, Water Lot No. 1; Great Lots Nos. 5, 16, 27, 36; and Lesser Lots Nos. 7 and 12.

Henry Filkin, Water Lot No. 2: Great Lots Nos. 6, 13, 25, 30.

Augustine Graham, Water Lot No. 3; Great Lots Nos. 4, 18, 21, 28; and Lesser Lots Nos. 2 and 11.

James Emott, Water Lot, No. 4; Great Lots Nos. 8, 11, 19, 32; and Lesser Lots Nos. 14 and 15.

John Aertson, Water Lot No. 5; Great Lots Nos. 3, 17, 22, 29; and Lesser Lots Nos. 6 and 10.

William Creed, Water Lot No. 6; Great Lots Nos. 9, 12, 26, 33; and Lesser Lots Nos. 5 and 9.

David Jamison, Water Lot No. 7; Great Lots Nos. 2, 14, 23, 34; and Lesser Lots Nos. 8 and 13.

Caleb Heathcote, Water Lot No. 8; Great Lots Nos. 7, 10, 20, 31; and Lesser Lot No. 3.

Jarvis Marshall, Water Lot No. 9; Great Lots Nos. 1, 15, 24, 35; and Lesser Lots Nos. 1 and 4.

Some natural features, such as hills, streams and ponds, appear on the map which it is possible to check with modern maps.

The map shows a famous white oak tree at the point of junction between three patents, — Great Nine Partners; Beekman; and Sanders and Harmense.

RECORDS OF CRUM ELBOW PRECINCT
Dutchess County, New York

1128786

The original manuscript volume, of which this book is a reproduction, is in the Adriance Memorial Library, Poughkeepsie, New York. It was presented to the library in 1937 by Mrs. Henry Howell Van Cleef of New Haven, Connecticut, who, after Mr. Van Cleef's death, found it among his effects, realized it pertained to Dutchess County, New York, and felt that it would be permanently preserved if placed in the local history department of the library at Poughkeepsie.

The volume itself, measuring eight by twelve inches, contains entries written in long hand which in date extend from 1738 to 1799. From 1738 through 1761 the entries were made by the Clerk of Crum Elbow Precinct, the precinct being a civil division of territory, and the area of this particular division including the present towns of Amenia, Clinton, Pleasant Valley, Stanford, Washington and most of the present town of Hyde Park. In 1762 this territory was divided into two parts, Amenia Precinct (equivalent to the present town of Amenia) and Charlotte Precinct, which latter embraced all of the remaining territory after Amenia was set off. At the time of that division William Doughty, who had been clerk of Crum Elbow Precinct since 1759, became clerk of the newly formed Charlotte Precinct and the manuscript volume in which he had kept his records as clerk of Crum Elbow Precinct continued to serve for the records of Charlotte Precinct from 1762 to 1785. By an act of the legislature of 1786, the name of Charlotte Precinct was changed to Clinton Precinct and the northern part of the present town of Hyde Park was added to it. In 1788 precincts were abolished in Dutchess County and towns created and the clerk of Clinton Precinct, Isaac Bloom, was retained as clerk of the town of Clinton and continued his records in the same book. The town of Clinton in 1789 comprised the present towns of Clinton, Hyde Park and Pleasant Valley and the entries in the book pertain to that area in the years 1788 through 1799.

The history of this record between 1799 and 1937 is not known. Supposedly the book remained in the custody of the clerk of the town of Clinton for many years. Then in some manner it reached the late Henry Howell Van Cleef, some time of Poughkeepsie, New York. It is to be noted that Mr. Van Cleef's father, the late J. Spencer Van Cleef, was at one time in partnership in the practice of law at Poughkeepsie with Mark Wilber, who came to Poughkeepsie from the town of Clinton and who had been town clerk of Clinton in 1854. It is a probable possibility that Mr. Wilber brought the volume to Poughkeepsie, that ultimately it lay forgotten in the law office and that it remained there when the partnership between Mr. Van Cleef and Mr. Wilber was dissolved, later passing to Mr. Van Cleef's son with the other contents of his father's office.

The volume that is here reproduced has no covers and the condition of the parchment bands shows that a large number of pages are missing from the back. Possibly the entries on those lost pages covered the years from 1799 to 1821, at which later date the original town of Clinton was reduced in area by the setting off from it of the towns of Hyde Park and Pleasant Valley. Perhaps, some day, the records for the town of Clinton between 1799 and 1821 will be found.

As matters stand, clerk's records for the area now known as the town of Hyde Park are at hand in this volume from 1738 to 1799. From 1821 to 1875 the town records of Hyde Park are already in print under the title of Records of the Town of Hyde Park, Dutchess County, Collections of the Dutchess County Historical Society, Volume III. Tax lists for this area from 1718 to 1748 and from 1753 to 1779 are on file in the Adriance Memorial Library, Poughkeepsie. Within the past year a few hand-written pages containing the assessment list for Clinton Precinct for 1786 were offered for sale and now are among the papers of the editor at Hyde Park. It is understood that a "Record Book" on file in the office of the clerk of the town of Clinton contains elections and oaths from 1799 to 1812, manumitions of slaves from 1799 to 1809 and ear marks and brand marks of cattle from 1758 to 1770.

In order that those who make use of Records of Crum Elbow Precinct may understand to just what territory the text is related, the editor has included in this volume reproductions of certain maps. One plate presents a map of the Great Nine Partners Patent that was made about the middle of the eighteenth century and which is now on deposit in the Adriance Memorial Library, Poughkeepsie, New York. This map belonged originally to descendants of Henry Filkin, one of the patentees of the Great Nine Partners Patent. By the marriage of one of the Filkins to a descendant of Isaac Germond (first clerk of Crum Elbow Precinct) the map passed to the Germond family, in which it was inherited, parent to child, until in 1935 Miss Clara Olive Germond of Poughkeepsie and her sisters gave it to the library. It is referred to on page 337 of the History of Duchess County, published in 1882 by James H. Smith. The other plate presents three diagrams which show the boundaries of Crum Elbow and Charlotte and Clinton Precincts and of the town of Clinton (1738-1799), superimposed upon the townships of Dutchess County as the latter are constituted in 1940.

The entries in the original record book have been copied verbatim, with careful adherence to original spelling and punctuation, and are offered to the public as Collections of the Dutchess County Historical Society, Volume VII. The material thus preserved abounds in references to eighteenth century residents of Dutchess County, New York, and to things which concerned their daily lives. It is the hope of the editor that workers in historical research and all who love Dutchess County for personal and family reasons will find in this book much that will be interesting and informing.

My especial thanks go to Mrs. Amy Ver Nooy who has done all of the hard work in the preparation of this volume, and to Miss Helen Wilkinson Reynolds with whom I have collaborated for many years in collecting and making available to the public historical material relating to Dutchess County.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

Hyde Park,
November, 1939.

EDITOR'S NOTE.

Pages 203, 204, 205 and 206 of the original manuscript are missing.

The last page is numbered 261, although references are made to pages 267, 271 and 275.

The date on the last page of the book is 1799, but on page 257 a marginal note says: "March 20, 1810, altered—to begin 2 rods East of the Brige between Evert Degraff and the first Mentioned Place. HVDBTC."

The page numbers mentioned in the text refer to pages of the original manuscript and not to pages in the printed book.

In the lists of road districts where changes in districts have been made and where marginal notes occur, it would seem that the original item was correct for the year it was written and that changes were made in subsequent years when a number was used for a district instead of a description of it being given.

In these same lists where two names, as overseer, appear following a description of a district, it would seem that the second name was added and was meant for a subsequent year.

There are no wax seals in the original record but there are small circles drawn to indicate where a seal would be. In the printed book these places are shown as (seal).

In the manuscript, in the handwriting of the several town clerks, many words and names have been written as: Esq$^{r}$., Maj$^{r}$., Cap$^{t}$., Rich$^{d}$., Benj$^{n}$., W$^{m}$., etc. In the printed book these appear as: Esq'r, Maj'r, Cap't., Rich'd, Benj'n, W'm.
